Overview of TAMS and Recommended Pandemic Guidelines for Buyers and Suppliers

Wednesday, September 2| 11:00 AM–12:00 PM ET

Over the last few months, an independent group of travel and meetings leaders have created and released the comprehensive S.O.S - Standards of Safety in BusinessTravel & Return to the Road Communication Strategy documents, as part of the Travel and Meetings Standards (TAMS) initiative. Representatives of this grassroots, volunteer task force will share an overview of these pandemic supplier guidelines and most importantly, discuss how they can be utilized as organizations rethink their travel policy, risk management requirements, and the wellbeing of their employees.
